

As a member of AIHP, you can take advantage of a wide range of valuable resources to help your property thrive!

1. You'll belong to a vibrant innkeeping community that promotes, protects, and advocates on your behalf.
2. Our members represent the multi-faceted lodging industry and are uniquely positioned to help and support each other.
3. We create, develop and host compelling, informative, and critical hospitality-related events for members, including webinars, seminars, workshops—and national conferences.
4. We negotiate with our Allied Partners giving you exclusive discounts on human resources, payroll, cash flow, and other valuable services to reduce your administrative costs.
5. Gain exposure to innovative business practices and thought leadership.
6. Enhance your professional development through education initiatives and industry research.
7. You can leverage our years of professional experience, knowledge, and hospitality industry relationships for your property.
8. We take a leadership role and serve as a positive voice at the table alongside key national organizations on the issues important to you.
9. We assign a key partner to work directly with you in areas where you may need assistance.
10. As a member-driven, non-profit organization we focus on issues important to you as an innkeeper—without the financial distraction often associated with for-profit organizations.

Association of Independent Hospitality Professionals

P.O. Box 126639 - Harrisburg, PA 17112

Contact: Rob Fulton, CEO

rob@independent-innkeeping.org

Direct Line: 717-433-6813